a new public conversation series on issues that bridge, matter to, & unite our communities

COME TALK ABOUT IT!

Wed., Dec. 6, 2023. Doors open 6 p.m.

Sea Level Rise, Warming & Storming: Navigating for Climate Resilience in Fishing Communities

Please gather with us at the Stonington Opera House for refreshments and, at 7 p.m., a short film & conversation with special guests facilitated by Linda Nelson
Kathleen Billings, Stonington Town Manager
Alexa Dayton & Carla Guenther, Maine Center for Coastal Fisheries
Travis Fifield, Stonington Selectman & Fifield Lobster Company
Carl Wilson, Maine Department of Marine Resources
Susie Arnold, Island Institute

*A quickly warming ocean. New species migrations.
Flooded causeways, roads, homes, and even Main Street.
What's Stonington, Maine's #1 lobster port, doing – and what can we all do?*
