Weekly Warrants-Motion by Dick, 2nd by John S. to approve them. 5-0

- 1. Bob Grainger- running for DA office-Bob stopped by to introduce himself. Said he wanted to get tougher on crime, supported efforts by law enforcement. Big backlog of cases, but too many dismissals from the current DA. He would like to rectify that. TM asked about prosecuting local home rule cases towns have such as Dog, Clam, Harbor ordinances like in the past before DA Foster. He said he would work with the towns to make a better system to address this.
- 2. Tax Acquired property Burnt Cove-TM said she had a request from Ellen Best from a client who was a nephew or something to pay the taxes up on the Judith Fowler Booth parcel the town acquired from non-payment and give to him. Board said they have policy, but no decision was made or decided for actions.
- 3. Harbor Committee recommendations, Rally-TM said she was working with the rally group, getting police, extra toilets, vendors, etc. Said girls working on it were doing a good job getting it together for speakers etc. to bring some attention to the NOAA actions on taking away our fishing through excessive rulemaking based on questionable science and statistics.

4. Housing meeting-Rep? Goals-Evelyn gave a brief rundown of the meeting in Sedgwick. Who was there, she said she gave the short-term rental materials, but not sure where they are going with the efforts.

Old Business-Progress on the Camoin study is ongoing. Zoom focus groups with businesses are next week by invitation. Give names if you have more you can think of. TM said good traction happening with Causeway and Bridge MDOT discussions and with the Congressional delegation helping to secure the $200K to do the causeway study for replacement planning work. Backhoe still waiting for parts, but Shaun reports it is getting by. Supply chain issues are still a challenge. TV/Zoom set up for upstairs meetings still waiting for parts to come, but hopefully we will get it soon to help facilitate larger meetings upstairs.

New Business-TM said she took Wednesday off to go to Rally in Portland. It was a beautiful day on the waterfront, did the rally and ate at DiMillios.

Adjourn-Motion by John S, 2nd by Travis to adjourn at 9:02PM. 5-0
